

The diagram shows a tri-fold brochure layout. It consists of three vertical panels. The left and right panels are wider, while the middle panel is narrower. A red line runs horizontally across the top of the middle panel, indicating the cut line. A blue line runs horizontally across the top of the left and right panels, indicating the safety line. Two green lines run vertically down the middle of the left and right panels, indicating the fold lines. Arrows point from the text labels to their respective lines. The background is a light gray with a large, faint, stylized letter 'M' watermark.
